3. COUNCILLOR PETER HARMAN.

Sadly, Councillor Peter Harman passed away unexpectedly on Thursday 22 August 2024.

Peter was a long-standing Town Councillor and had served as Town Mayor on 5 occasions as well as being Chair and Vice-Chair on many of the Town Councils Committees and Sub-Committees.

In addition to being a long standing Swanscombe and Greenhithe Town Councillor Peter was also a councillor on Stone Parish Council, Dartford Borough Council and Kent County Council.

Peter had been in the Fire Service for 35 years before he retired and had lived in Greenhithe for 53 years. He had a passion for serving his community and always wanted to try and get the best for the community, often in very difficult circumstances.

Members are invited to give their tributes to Councillor Peter Harman and to then discuss ways in which his contribution to the community can be commemorated.
